

Judge-Your-Neighbor Worksheet

Judge your neighbor • Write it down • Ask four questions • Turn it around

Think of a recurring stressful situation, a situation that is reliably stressful even though it may have happened only once and recurs only in your mind. As you answer each of the questions below, allow yourself to mentally revisit the time and place of the stressful occurrence.

I am	emotion	with	name	because

Example. I don't ever want Paurto he to me again, i don't ever want to see nim full his health again

Now investigate each of the above statements using the four questions. Always give yourself time to let the deeper answers meet the questions. Then turn each thought around. For the turnaround to number 6, replace the words "I don't ever want to ..." with "I am willing to ..." and "I look forward to ..." Until you can look forward to all aspects of life without fear, your Work is not done.

The four questions

Example: Paul doesn't listen to me about his health.

- 1. Is it true? (Yes or no. If no, move to 3.)
- 2. Can you absolutely know that it's true? (Yes or no.)
- 3. How do you react, what happens, when you believe that thought?
- 4. Who would you be without the thought?

Turn the thought around

- a) to the self. (I don't listen to myself about my health.)
- b) to the other. (I don't listen to Paul about his health.)
- c) to the opposite. (Paul does listen to me about his health.)

Then find at least three specific, genuine examples of how each turnaround is true for you in this situation.
